

MIDWAY BIOGRAPHIES

FREDERICK HASLER, JR. AND EMMA BAUMGARTNER HASLER

Frederick Hasler, Jr., was born at Gsteigwyler Bern, Switzerland, November 16, 1872. He was the youngest child and only son of Frederick Hasler, Sr., and Margaretha Abegglen. He came to Midway with his parents in the early summer of 1873, as converts to The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Frederick, Jr., made his home in Midway for over seventy years. He was very active in church and civic affairs. He died at Midway October 31, 1943. On the 11th of April, 1906, he married Emma Baumgartner in the Salt Lake LDS Temple. Like her husband, she was from Switzerland and also a convert to the Church.

Emma Baumgartner was born at Sumiswald, Bern, Switzerland, July 19, 1878, daughter of Johannes Baumgartner and Elizabeth Eggiman. She was baptized March 2, 1898, into the LDS Church, and came to Wasatch County, July 1, 1904. She made her home in Midway since her marriage and lived in the same house she came to as a bride in April 1906. She also was very active in the Church. They were the parents of eight children.
